Councilman Commends Police Chief Report

Crime Decreasing; Activity Up In Our Police Department

★ ★ ★ ★

Upon presentation of the annual report by Chief of Police Tom Kendra, Councilman Gordon Rudolph gave high praise to the department as a whole and to the Chief for their activity over the past year in reducing the number of actual crimes from a total for 1970 of 2185 to 2130 in 1971.

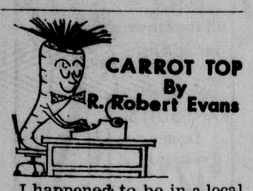

In introducing his report, Chief Kendra said, "This report is presented as an information source, both for general interest and as an operational aid," and he continued, "This report also contains information relative to other activities of the department during the year. These include Community Services, Training Programs and activities of the Sierra Madre Police Reserve Unit."

Further, he said, "During the year 1971 the Police Department investigated 2,155 reports of crime. This represents a 1.7 per cent decrease over the 2,168 reported in 1970."

Topping the list of those investigated was "Disturbing the Peace," for a total of 589; next and following were Animal Complaints, 234; Road and Driving Laws, 199; Misdemeanor All Other, 197; Malicious Mischief, 136; Parking Violations, 116; and Fetty Theft, 109. Other various categories took up the balance of the number reported but Burglary for residents was listed at 83; Burglary other, 32; Juvenile offenses, 66.

In the arrest category there were 457 arrests and detentions; 336 adults and

I happened to be in a local store doing my weekly shopping last week and as I was roaming around the store I noticed a young lady walk in the door with two toy French poodles on a leash.

— CT —

Of course nowadays, there is really nothing unusual about French poodles, but while she was standing observing some merchandise I noticed that the dogs were scurrying about and they seemed to worry another man that was in the store.

— CT —

After a few minutes, I noticed that the young lady walking over to the gentleman and she made the following remarks. "Don't be afraid," she comfortingly said. "The two poodles have been definitely trained not to bite."

— CT —

"Madam," said the man, "I wasn't afraid that they'd bite, but I noticed that they were lifting their leg and I thought that one of them was going to kick me." Now that is one way to look at things, and I really can understand the man's feelings, couldn't you?

— CT —

Now here is a little information that was brought into me of late and it does have some deep thinking to contribute to it, and I pass the information on to you for your thinking and consideration.

Strange But True
Kennedy Lincoln

There are seven letters in each name.

Both presidents had legality of election contested.

Both were directly concerned with the issue of civil rights.

Both were slain on Friday and in the presence of their wives.

Lincoln was elected in 1860 — Kennedy was elected in 1960.

— CT —

Their successors were named Johnson, and were Southern Democrats, who previously had served in the U.S. Senate.

Andrew Johnson was born in 1808 — Lyndon Johnson in 1908.

Booth and Oswald were murdered before trial could be arranged.

Lincoln's secretary named Kennedy advised him not to go to the theatre. Kennedy's secretary named Lincoln advised him not to go to Dallas.

— CT —

Booth shot Lincoln in a theatre and hid in a warehouse.

John Wilkes Booth, Lee Harvey Oswald each contain fifteen letters.

Lincoln and Kennedy were carried in death on the same caisson.

— CT —

What do you do with a four-year-old bad debt?

I should have known better than to loan money to a friend. Give it, maybe; but loan it, never. I should have heeded Shakespear's advice when he had Polonius say to Laertes: "Neither a borrower nor a lender be; for loan oft loses both itself and friend."

— CT —

And that's exactly what happened. Yet, when my friend came with his sad tale that he couldn't pay his rent, his children weren't going to have any Christmas and his wife needed medicine ... well, I dipped into my children's college savings account and loaned him $400.

— CT —

He insisted on signing a note with interest. "On or before May 1, 1968, I agree . . ."

But long before May 1 rolled around my friend and his family had roled out of town.

A year later I wrote him a letter in Mexico. "Forget the interest and just pay the

Big Shoe Sale Now In Progress At Ralph's Shoe

Ralph and Ann Hurwit have been fitting feet in and around Sierra Madre for over 25 years, and take a great enjoyment in the fact that now days they are fitting feet that belong to the feet that they fit over those years.

"Every Easter," says Ralph, "It is one of the greatest times of our lives, for this is the period when young girls and boys want to look their very best and they join with mother and father in coming into the store to have a brand new pair of shoes for the festive occasion.

This year's Easter Sale has been outstanding," continues Ralph, "We have been receiving the new spring styles now for over three weeks and every day something new is arriving and it really takes the breath away from those that experience the new styles," he said.

Ann is equally enthusiastic about the complete line of shoes that have been obtained this year, together with hand bags, purses, stockings, hose and accessories. "There is very little reason to go beyond Ralph Shoe Store for your Easter finery in shoes this year," says Ann. "We have some of the finest and we always stand by the old tradition that here at Ralphs Shoe Store both Ralph and I do everything in our power to 'fit your feet and not your imagination,'" she concluded.

So now, as you get your Easter wardrobe completed, do come down to Ralph Shoe Store and make your selection of fine shoes that you will be proud to wear, not only on this great Sunday, but for the many days throughout the spring and summer. The price is right! The color is right! and the fit is correct!

RALPH AND ANN HURWIT congratulate each other on the results of the Gigantic Easter Sale that is now taking place in the Ralph Shoe Store. "I am real happy," said Ralph to Ann. "That so many people in and around Sierra Madre will have shoes fitting their feet instead of their imagination, this Easter." "It's really a grrrrate feeling," says Ann.

Delgatto Makes Second Plea

To the Citizens of Sierra Madre:

This is my second release to you.

I am convinced that the City Hall is still a safe place to be and work. It will be a mistake to spend money on moving and renting portables until we build a new City Hall.

I am aware that the water bond issue is on the ballot. I believe that we should take the advice of the Water committee, and will let you know how I will vote on this issue.

As a member of the Chamber of Commerce I feel as a merchant that I can help in many local problems, not only involving the business of the City but the residents. It is imperative that a master plan be adopted immediately. This will make it possible for the residential and the business area to be cohesive

More as time goes by.
Thanks
Jack Delgatto Sr.

Water Bonds Sold To B of A

A Bank of America underwriting group was apparent high bidder for the $17,500,000 bond issue of the San Gabriel Valley Municipal Water District, Los Angeles County. Net interest cost to the district was 5.1626 per cent.

Proceeds of the issue will be used to finance the building of a 38-mile conveyance facility to bring water from the California Water Project to the district via the California Aqueduct.

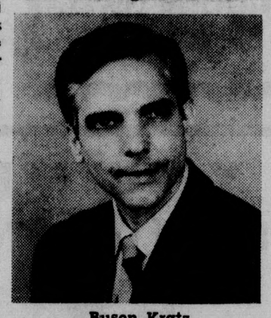

Under a contract with the state of California, the district is entitled to a maximum of 28,800 acre feet a year from the State Water Project.

The district covers about 24 square miles in the West San Gabriel Valley and foothill area of Eastern Los Angeles County. About 99 per cent of assessed valuation is in incorporated cities, including 45 per cent in Alhambra, 32 per cent in Monterey Park, 15 per cent in Azusa and 8 per cent in Sierra Madre. Estimated population of 143,000 compares with 118,500 in 1960.

City Could Be 100% Sewered

March 24 Deadline For Citizens To Present Petitions To City Council

★ ★ ★ ★

Costs Less If All Under One Contract & Contractor

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

EDITOR'S NOTE: That the entire City of Sierra Madre be sewered is now before the City Council, as has been suggested by many property owners of the un-sewered districts. The best way to give you the necessary information is the publication of a letter to those people by Mayor Ralph R. Rule. Petitions and answers are expected back into the City by this Frdiay, March 24. Following is the letter:

SUBJECT: Formation of Sewer District
Dear Property Owner:

Most of you should have received an earlier letter which invited you to an informal meeting on sewers to be held at the Sierra Madre City Hall on Tuesday, February 29, 1972.

If you failed to get that letter or did not attend the February 29 meeting, let me reiterate a few facts which came out at the meeting:

1. There are some twenty-two separate areas in Sierra Madre that are unsewerd at this time.

2. Three of these areas (Camillo, a portion of Orange Grove, and a portion of Manzanita) are having a serious problem and need sewers immediately.

3. It will be substantially less expensive to proceed with one large district than to form a number of small districts.

4. No private system of septic tank and cesspool will last indefinitely.

5. Pumping once started is a continuing operation and some persons have already invested almost as much in pumping or other temporary measures as the estimated sewer installation cost.

6. A sewer line is a good property sales factor and several people spoke of losing sales due to lack of sewers.

The February 29 meeting was very informative with the comments ranging from "I'm having trouble and the council should move ahead immediately even to calling for a Health Officer report," to "I'm not having trouble now but I recognize the eventual need, the rising cost, and the cost advantage of a large district and favor going ahead now."

The consensus was to proceed as follows:

1. Establish the whole remaining unsewered portion of the city as one district with provision for zones and portions of zones.

2. Send out this letter giving additional information including costs to every person to be affected.

3. Include a petition and Present members of Alpha Psi will be hostesses at this event under the leadership of Mrs. Gwen Walters of Glendora, vice president.

map and a return envelope so that official action can be taken by each owner, stating his desire to take part.

4. Where substantial interest is shown but the 60 per cent figure is not reached, have an interested person in the area contact the remaining persons to give further information about the petition and the sewer district.

5. In those areas where a health hazard now exists or is brought to the attention of the city due to overflowing cesspools, if the petition process is not progressing the Health Officer will be asked to investigate and make his recommendation to the city.

A number of persons have contacted the city stating they would or did miss the meeting and either were asking for information or stating their support for the formation of a city-wide district. If you need further information or want to relay some comment to the city, please contact the Engineering Department at 355-7135 or Larry Bevington at 445-0100.

Thank you for your attendance at the February 29 meeting and for reading this letter and the material enclosed.

The city does not want to appear to be forcing anything on the property owners but there are sufficient advantages to solving the sewer problems for the rest of the city at one time that the City Council felt they should hear from the residents as to their ideas and desires.

Since there are some areas where the need is urgnt, you are requested to return the petition not later than March 24, 1972.

If you know of any person in your area who did not receive this or the earlier letter, either call the City Hall so they can be added to the list or share this material with them.

Several persons can sign the same petition so if this is convenient, please do that and then return it to the City Hall.

Sincerely,
Ralph R. Rule
Mayor

Toy Soldiers Met March 8

The "Toy Soldiers" held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, March 8th from 7-8 p.m. in the Park House. The roll was taken by the secretary Cathy Crook. There were a few absent because of a slight epidemic of the mumps going around. around.

After the roll call Mrs. Peterson talked about a few jobs that needed to be re-emphasized about the care of toys. She then gave out permission slips for the girls to visit Toy Loan Headquarters during the Easter vacation. This is one of the most important requirements for the members of the group. It is where all the donated toys that eventually go to all the Toy Centers to be borrowed by hundreds of children, are reconditioned. Since some of the girls have their vacation the week before Easter and some the week after, there will be two trips. One on Wednesday, March 29th and the other on Wednesday, April 5th.

Mr. & Mrs. Lyle H. Seaman Announce Engagement of Daughter At Buffet

MISS DARCI SEAMAN
. . . . Engaged

An engagement party was held honoring Miss Darci Seaman and Mr. James Ditmore at the Sierra Madre home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle H. Seaman Jr., on March 11.

The party began at 7 p.m. with a buffet supper. A color scheme of orange and yellow was predominant. After supper a beautiful cake, decorated with hearts, circled with "Darci and Jim" was served and a toast was made to the couple.

Miss Seaman was presented a garter by two of her friends and a lovely canister set was given to the couple by Ed Chartonian.

The bride-to-be was born and raised in Sierra Madre. She attended local schools and will graduate from Pasadena High School in June.

James Ditmore is the son of Mr. Vern Ditmore of Costa Mesa and Mrs. Berry Ditmore of Pasadena. Mr. Ditmore graduated from Pasadena High School and is now employed by Peter Kiewit and Sons, Co., Arcadia.

Those present at the party were Darci's sisters, Mrs. Bobbie Davis and Mrs. Noelle Covell and brother-in-law, Craig Covell. Other guests included Ed Chartonian, Kathy Stevens, Gay Niehaus, Bob Schneider, Julie Holtz, Charles Epperson, Connie Vensel, David Robinson, Joyce Alseth, Virginia Berginsmith, Dave Snetsinger and Rhonda Gac.

The wedding will take place on September 16th at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Arcadia.

Rho Chapter Has Activities

Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, entertained its spring rushees at a Gypsy Caravan March 9 held at the Altadena home of Mrs. James Mattiazzi. Hostess for the affair was Mrs. Robert Dixon. The theme was carried out as each guest arrived in gypsy attire. The evening was highlighted by the entrance of the gypsy fortune teller (actually Rho's own Mrs. Charles Tea) who analyzed handwriting and read palms. The evening was enjoyed by one and all.

Also, on Rho's agenda for March will be their regular meeting on Thursday, March 16, at the home of Mrs. Ros Ostermeier. This evening will include election of officers for the coming season.

Saturday, March 18, the group will hold its mixed St. Patty's' Day party at the home of Mrs. Richards Thomas of Sierra Madre. Co-hostess for this "Wearin' o' the green" party will be Mrs. Fred Kelly.

Days of Steam

Huge steam locomotives, which the younger generation has never seen on the rails, are displayed at the Los Angeles County Fair as one of many free attractions on view during the exposition's 17-day run September 15 through October 1.

Pasadena Bankers Met March 18

Members of the Pasadena Ditsrict Chapter of the American Institute of Banking attended a public speaking contest for district VII of the American Institute of Banking which was held in Anaheim on March 18. They heard Mrs. Corita Berry compete with other District VII A.I.B. contestants. District VII covers Southern California, Central Arizona and Hawaii, and consists of 15 A.I.B. chapters.

Mrs. Berry is employed by Wells Fargo Bank, and won the chapter contest on February 14, over eight other contestants, all of whom are also bank employees. The chapter theme was "The Banker and His Environment" and the theme for the district contest will be "The Banker and His Political Environment." The winner will represent District VII at the national contest to be held in San Francisco on May 28. The theme at the national level will be "The Banker In His Social Environment."

The object of the public speaking contest is to improve practices, broaden purposes and increase the usefulness of banking as an institution.

Democrats United To Meet Mar. 24

Deputy District Attorney Vincent Bugliosi will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of Democrats United on Friday, March 24, at 8 p.m. at the Covina Library, 234 N. Second Ave., Covina.

Mr. Bugliosi's topic will be "A New Day in Court." Well-known as the prosecutor in the Manson trial, Mr. Bugliosi is running for the office of District Attorney of Los Angeles County. A question and answer session will follow.

Also, the provocative film, "Mineral King," narrated by distinguished actor Burgess Meredith, will be shown. This film explores the question, "Should the Mineral King National Game Refuge be converted into a multi-million dollar ski resort?" Produced in association with the Division of Cinema at USC, the 29-minute film was created by Bruton Peterson and Jim Rascoe.

The public is invited, and there will be no admission charge. For further information, please call Rickie Santell at 332-6539.

Various Aspects Aired

Final Report On Canyon Plan Being Presented

On March 16, 1972, the Consultant Planners of the City of Sierra Madre, Menard & Hill, presented their final report of the Sierra Madre Canyon Specific Plan to members ofthe Subcommittee. The immediate presentation primarily consisted of a restatement of the immediate action goals and the most important point of the plan as set forth by the Committee. There were, however, in attendance at this meeting only six members of the Subcommittee.

Following the presentation by Dick Hill, the Consultant Planner, members of the Canyon Subcommittee discussed various aspects of the plan and in particular those items which in their opinion should be accomplished immediatel. Members of the Planning Commission responded in the discussion and stated that in their opinion some items as set forth in the immediate action program required further explanation in order that the Planning Commission would know exactly the desires of the Subcommittee. These items were in particular enforcement of the Housing Code and the creation of a specific land use ordinance.

Following this discussion, it was the decision of those members of the Canyon Subcommittee who were present, that an additional meeting of the Subcommittee be conducted on April 3, 1972 at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the City Hall. Their decision to set this meeting was based upon, in their opinion, the necessity of further discussion for final recommendation of approval, disapproval or approval with amendments to the plan as presented. The Planning Commission has set a public hearing for final adoption of the Sierra Madre Canyon Specific Plan on April 13, 1972. It is therefore, imperative that each member of the Subcommittee of the Canyon, if at all possible, attend this last meeting.

The staff of the City is attaching copies of the plan as presented by Menard & Hill for each of the Subcommittee members. Any member who has questions regarding the goals or statements in this plan should feel free to contact the staff of the City at any time.

Meeting date is Monday, April 3, 1972, 7:30 p.m. at Council Chambers of the Ctiy Hall.

Members of Phi Delta Rho Chatper of Beta Sigma Phi will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. John Malone of Alhambra, on Tuesday, March 21, at 8 p.m. The cultural program for the evening, "Do I Get the Extra Dividends Out of Life?", will be presented by the hostess.

A box lunch social is planned for Sunday, March 26, at the San Gabriel Community Park for sorority members and their families.

Sierra Madre Woman's Club Has Bargains Galore At Their Gift Shop

More than two thousand bargains are waiting for Sierra Madreans at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Thrift Shop, but they won't wait very long, according to Mrs. Henry Wade, Jr.

The Thrift Shop is winding down its operation in preparation for the Club's move next June to the historic house at 550 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., now being restored by a communitywide effort spearheaded jointly by the Woman's Club and Civic Club.

The Thrift Shop plans to move along with the club, but the new headquarters will be much smaller than the current location above the clubhouse at 270 West Sierra Madre Blvd., and the current inventory of over 2,000 items has to be reduced accordingly over the next three months, Mrs. Wade said.

Items currently available at the Thrift Shop range all the way from antique amber to zippers, and just about everything in between, from kitchenware, sewing materials, office equipment and clothing to fine linens, sterling silver, antique jewelry, paintings and furniture.

As one of the Thrift Shop's founders, Mrs. Wade, will celebrate her 15th anniversary with the Shop next August 27.

Operated as a community service, as well as fund-raising project, the Thrift Shop provides a service to residents who cannot afford "first-hand" prices. At the same time it provides an outlet for many residents who place items on consignment for sale through the shop, and handles many rare and beautiful antiques. Sales from the shop provided over $2,000 for maintenance of the clubhouse and club philanthropies, more than $1,000 of which went to support the endeavors of local organizations this year.

The Sierra Madre Woman's Club is a member of the Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs and contributes to District and Federation philanthropies, in addition to local endeavors, through proceeds realized from the Thrift Shop program. It received an engraved silver plate from the District in 1962, in honor of its outstanding philanthropic fund-raising achievements and has continued its success record over the years.

Open three days a week, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., the Thrift Shop currently averages 30 customers a day. It also maintains a "specialty clientele" of over 60 persons interested in particular items, such as antique furniture or china, and welcomes a visiting clientele of around a dozen neighborhood children and eight canine customers who come to sample the shop's inventory of cookies and dog biscuits, Mrs. Wade said.

Tips For State Income Tax

The Franchise Tax Board today urged taxpayers to type or print clearly and verify all vital information before filing their state personal income tax return before the April 17 deadline.

Many returns cannot be processed promptly because of illegible writing or printing, incorrect social security numbers or other simple taxpayer errors, according to Martin Huff, executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

If the taxpayer will take a few extra minutes to check on the readability and the accuracy of the information before mailing his return, he will save both himself and the state time and money, Huff commented.

Literally thousands of persons are contacted each year as a result of hasty preparation of tax returns, Huff said. "In the long run, the few minutes spent in review may save the taxpayers the future inconvenience of supplying the necessary information.

"One reason is that some taxpayers will wait until the last minute to prepare their returns then race to the post office to meet this year's April 17 deadline," he added.

Huff suggested taxpayers allow themselves sufficient time to complete the return, to claim all legitimate deductions and to assure that they will have the funds to pay the amount due.

. . . Sierra Madre COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

Late admissions to the hospital, not yet discharged, include Betty M. Kennedy, admitted on Sunday, March 12, and Ruth Soumbe, who was admitted on Wednesday, March 15.

The boy babies outnumbered the little girls at this writing by the odds of two to one. Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Vaniman of Los Angeles were delivered a 5 pound 11¾ ounce little girl on Wednesday, March 1. Mother and babe left for their home on Friday, March 3, the first little one at their place.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Newland of Glendora were delivered a 9 pound 6 ounce boy on Monday, March 13. Going home day was Wednesday, March 15. One other little one awaited their home coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Mario Diez of San Gabriel were presented a little boy on Wednesday, March 15. Each new mother was given a beautiful copy of "This Is My Life" baby book to take home with her.

Letters To the Editor . . . .

Dear Editor:

I've tried and tried to write this letter of appreciation and thanks to our local Volunteer Fire Department, our Police Department, friends, neighbors and the community in general. But each time I attempt to put pen to paper, I am overwhelmed with emotion and confronted with the inadequacy of mere words to express my feelings.

Fire struck our tiny home Monday evening, February 28th at approximately 10 p.m. By the time the fire was discovered and the Fire Department called, there was not much that could be done, other than keep the fire from spreading to surrounding houses; we literally lost everything except the clothes on our backs. Indeed, my husband and I were lucky to escape with our lives.

We hope Sierra Madreans realize how fortunate they are — to have such a knowledgeable and dedicated group as the Volunteer Fire Department. They were magnificent; there was no hesitation in what had to be done when they arrived on the scene. They moved with purpose, sureness, swiftness as integrals of a well-trained team. Our Police Department is equally due high praise. Members of both groups were so concerned and so helpful to us. They are due the highest respect possible and earn every bit of it.

During the years, my love of antiques, paintings, object d'art has led me to fill our tiny home with many of these items. Knowing my love of beautiful things, many of our friends and neighbors have come forth with exquisite items to — in some way — replace those that have been lost. (Of course, nothing can replace my own collection. But these new objects are much, much dearer to me because of the spirit in which they have been given and shared.) An artist friend has even presented several beautiful and original paintings to us, simply because he felt our loss so greatly. Others have given sets of dishes, towels and cooking utensils. And we owe the clothes on our back to the generosity of others.

Bill and I are so happy that we live in Sierra Madre — a lovely town filled with wonderful, wonderful people. We hope to yive here another 31 years!

I could go on, but still these words do not express satisficatorily what is in our hearts. We sincerely wish to extend our heartfelt appreciation to all for their kindness and help. What else can we say, except, "Thank you"?

— Bill and Toy Stoddard

Sixty Years Ago:

Important Announcement: The Sierra Madre News will issue a special Flower Festival Supplement at the time of the second annual flower festival. This will be done at the request of the Flower Festival committee, which happens to coincide with plans which the publisher had already worked out in part . . .

"California Raisin Day," inaugurated three years ago, will be celebrated again this year on the thirtieth day of April. Raisin Day has now become an annual affair and there is hardly a part of the United States where raisins are not eaten on this occasion. It was inaugurated three years ago by the raisin growers of California and the Southern Pacific company and everybody in the country on the thirtieth day of April, became afflicted with "raisinitis." Throughout the entire country railroads prepare special menus for their dining cars, all of which contain some dish which has for one of the ingredients, raisins. The committee in charge of the affair this year are planning for the issuance of 40,000 posters and window cards, 100,000 post cards and approximately 2,000,000 stickers, . .

Mrs. H. H. Lund was fined five dollars and costs by Recorder Perry on Thursday for digging up poppy plants from the parking adjoining L. E. Steinberger's property on Sunnyside avenue. Complaint was sworn to by Mr. Steinberger who had found Mrs. Lund and one of her employees removing a row of poppy pants which he had tended with considerable care. There was no dispute as to the facts, Mrs. Lund's attorney merely claiming she did not know the law was being violated or that the plants had been set out. . .

FOR SALE — Jackson auto, 30 h.p., fully equipped. Most $1,250. Will sell for $800. Almost new. Call at Central and Hermosa or phone Blue 7.

Mrs. Fairbanks of West Central avenue has as a guest her cousin, Miss Weimer, who has just returned from the Orient. Miss Weimer is a writer of note and has been making a study of the far eastern countries. She will remain in Sierra Madre about a month.

With China and the Shanghai war zone on the "front pages" — Bethany Church will present an unusual attraction on Sunday. Surviving one hundred days of captivity in the hands of a notorious brigand army in the interior of China, Rev. and Mrs. Robert W. Porteous, of the China Inland Mission, will be heard on Sunday evening . . . A few weeks before the capture of Mr. and Mrs. Porteous, three Finnish women, associate workers of the same Chinese mission, had been taken by the same brigand army and two of them cruelly put to death. . .

Remember

I must admit it was difficult to answer the letter I received, which was address to Mr. Arthur "Bornmann." Since before I could answer the lady's memory question I had to give her some tips on how to remember my name.

My next column, "Rote Is Rottent" will involve my feelings about the rote system of learning in school and thrugh my own experiences found that there must be a better way.

Sen. Richardson Gives Statement During Filing

Senator H. L. Richardson (R-Arcadia) made the following statement following the filing of his papers for re-election to the 19th Senatorial District:

"I have greatly enjoyed serving the citizens of the 19th District since 1966, and look forward to continuing my service in the State Senate with much enthusiasm.

"During the past year, it has come to my attention that California is sorely lacking for leadership in the area of crime prevention and law enforcement. Despite what we are told, the citizens of California are not receiving the kind of protection they are entitled to, and law enforcement is not receiving the proper support it needs to do its job effectively.

"Crime in the streets, in my opinion, is a vitally important issue. It is something that surpasses all economic and political considerations — a very real matter of life and death.

"I believe that the work I have started in this area is the most important thing I have ever done in my life; and, I am dedicated to making our streets safe for our citizens and their children once more.

"But, there is much more work to be done before this goal can be realized. With the help of the citizens in the 19th Senate District, I will continue the battle against the criminal element in California."

Orange Grove avenue, where he still operates an orchard his father started back in the days when the present city was just a part of the foothill slope, is responsible for the "Sierra Madre" trademark used by the Sierra Madre - Lamada Park Citrus Association, recently adopted to mark the select lemon crop of this section, which, according to Mr. Pegler, is now conceded to be the finest in the world. It will probably be news to many Sierra Madreans that the local association is the second largest shipper of lemons in the United States, being exceeded only by the Upland Association. . .

All the stage is set for a preview opening of the Wistaria Fete on Sunday. The official opening will not take place until Thursday, March 24th, when a party, sponsored by the Volunteer Firemen, and including many distinguished guests, will start the 1932 season with fitting ceremony. . .

Foundation has been completed for a new nine-room home for Mayor W. Webster Vannier which is being erected at 209 Oak Meadow, north of Orange Grove and between Mountain Trail and Canon. Cost, according to the permit issued by the Building and Permits Department, exceeds $32,000.

The veenrable Dr. George W. Groth Sr. observed his 85th birthday anniversary Saturday, St. Patrick's Day, and on the next day, Sunday, surrounded by members of his family, good wishes from those absent and likewise from his numerous friends. For the two days the Groth home at 147 N. Baldwin was buzzing with activity. Dr. George W. Groth Jr., studying at the University of Vienna in Austria, phoned his felicitations and a tape recording came from the eldest daughter at Kennewick, Wash., telling of her family's activities there and expressing best wishes for her father.

John B. DuBois, 1255 Medford Rd., Hastings Ranch (Pasadena), won the Toastmasters Area Speak-Off Contest held at Henry's Restaurant last Saturday night. He represented the Sierra Madre Toastmasters Club.

To Introduce Cross-Filing For Better Candidates

The 1913 progressive political reform of cross-filing greatly altered traditional politics in our state. Cross-filing —a phenomenon unique to California — is part of the state's progressive heritage. A direct result of California's "anti-partyism," cross-filing was rooted in the very nature of the state's population. The newcomers who pour into the state have traditionally been less party conscious, realizing that the party affiliation they brought with them is not necessarily a valid guide for them in California.

The future political life of California was greatly affected by the Progressive's 1913 primary bill which established cross-filing. This law permitted candidates to file on all party tickets, regardless of their own affiliation, which was not disclosed. A candidate had to win his own party's primary to qualify for the general election, but could ensure victory by winning on other party ballots.

Cross-filing established an open primary where most serious candidates ran. By the 1950's, 80 per cent of those running for office cross-filed in the primaries. And in 1952, 72 per cent of those elected to state partisan office had ensured their victory by cross-filing in the primaries.

The effect cross-filing had on party nominations was the major reason it was abolished in 1959. A candidate often failed to win his own party's nomination; party leadership was cut off from the grass roots level. Officials thus independently elected were often reluctant to follow party directives.

The high population mobility and influx of newcomers has weakened the incumbency advantage. In 1966 an incumbent Governor lost his re-election bid as did incumbent Senators in 1968 and 1970, while under cross-filing no incumbent U.S. Senator had been defeated for 21 years.

It is in California's progressive tradition that State Senator George Deukmejian (R-Long Beach) has introduced four "election reform" bills. Most importantly, the bills would reinstitute cross-filing. The result of the Deukmejian bills would serve to minimize the unfair advantage held by a wealthy or well-funded candidate by shortening the campaign and imposing expenditure limitations. The California Fair Campaign Practices Board would impose basic principles of "decency and fair play."

"Experience has shown that the elimination of cross-filing has not improved the quality of legistlation," the Senator said. "It was largely due to bitter partisan battles that the 1971 Legislature was the longest in history, yet produced . . . few concrete accomplishments."

Senator Deukmejian's proposal should be given careful consideration by the Legislature. There can be no doubt that an overemphasis on partisanship has hampered the legislative process in recent years; nor that cross-filing would serve to reverse this trend. But the benefits of cross-filing must be carefully weighed against the loss of all partisan competition and responsibility.

$1 Million Grant For Building Fund

The Seeley G. Mudd Fund of Los Angeles and the Pacific School of Religion of Berkeley today announced a $1 million grant from the fund to the Pacific School of Religion toward the cost of a classroom and seminar building. The new building will be known as The Seeley G. Mudd Building and will cost $1.3 million. It will be ready for occupancy in the spring of 1974.

The Pacific School of Religion is non-denominational. It was founded in 1866 and has 150 students studying for the degree of Master of Divinity. It is one of nine independent schools of theology which are clustered together in the hills of Berkeley on the north side of the campus of the University of California. None of these nine schools are a part of the University.

Remember To Read This For Memory Improvement Hints

By Arthur Bornstein

As a result of my column, I have received many letters from people with memory problems I thought I would take a few of those inquiries and answer them here and perhaps aid others, who may have similar troubles.

One woman, who wrote to me had this to say, "Mr. Bornstein, I just can't remember anything! I forget to give my husband messages. I forget appointments that I've made. I even forget important birthdays of my closest relatives. It's a good thing that I have an understanding husband, who has a good memory, or I'd really have embarrassing situations to cope with. I've tried to write things on calendars and such but I even forget to look at the calendar. What's my problem?"

In answer to this lady's problem, here's a thought that she might take into consideration. In contantly trying to rely on calendars, notes, etc. a person may bypass the brain while taking down the information. It's much better to listen carefully, rather than simply trying to write everything down.

Another letter I received was from a clothing salesman, who said that he had trouble keeping up with style numbers of new merchandise that came into his store. He also had a hard time remembering which styles came in which color.

Here's a situation where a person's imagination can be of assistance. The salesman could visualize a particular style of suit as a home, (for someone's body) and the style number could be the address (he could see the style number written on the suit) and the colors that the piece of clothing came in, could be the interior decor of the home.

This type of mental image association can be applied to a variety of situations. Such as the situation of the waitress, who wrote in about her problem of forgetting who had ordered which dish at a table of more than four people.

Just as the salesman visualized style numbers on the articles of clothing, the waitress could visualize each person at the table eating what they order, as she is taking down their requests.

If you are interested in further information on some of these memory techniques I'd be happy to hear from you. I'd also be delighted to know if these methods have helped you with an individual memory problem. You can write me at the Bornstein School of Memory Training, Ambassador Hotel, 3400 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, 90010.

Lesson-Sermon For Sun., Mar. 26

How did Christ Jesus heal the sick? This question will be explored Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, in a Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality."

Scriptural selections include an account of the healing by Christ Jesus of a blind man.

Commentary from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy includes this explanation: "Jesus beheld in Science the perfect man, who appeared to him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals. In this perfect man the Saviour saw God's own likeness, and this correct view of man healed the sick."

Services begin at 11:00 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 186 W. Highland Ave., and the public is always welcome.

'Thine Is the Kingdom' Is Palm Sunday Sermon

The world is quickly reaching the point of ultimate crisis. Both great men and nations are beginning to see the inability of man to govern himself. On the one hand man desires incessantly to be happy, but on the other hand he insists that he seek happiness in his own way.

What is true for the individual is true for nations. Men who seek the good life, but seek it through the channels of their own power and control, sooner or later discover that the way which seems right unto a man, ultimately leads him to a dead end. It is the kindness and love of God that leads us down the dark alley and to the abrupt stop of a brick wall. It is only when we reach the dead end that we begin to realize that we have taken the wrong road. It is only when we end up in the dark alley that we sense our own inability to govern and guide our own lives. And the dead end of life is a wonderful occasion to lead us into a new birth, a new beginning, when we can pray from the heart "Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever." Amen.

Sermon topic: Thine is the Kingdom. Pastor Richard J. Anderson, Sierra Madre Congregational Church.

March 30th, Maundy Thuresday, Tenebrae with communion.

Good Friday Community Service at 12:30 (one half hour long, with sermon).

Easter — Two services (9:30 and 11:00 a.m.) Child care.

Pool Manager Now Selected

After reviewing several possible candidates, an interview board comprised of Robert Talbott, Chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission; Robert Richards, Safety Director of the Pasadena Red Cross; Roger Keith, Swim Coach for the City of Monrovia; and Parks and Recreation Director Steve Renfro, made the selection of the new Pool Manager to succeed retiring Mert Waite.

A difficult choice between the two final candidates resulted in the selection of Bill Sullivan, past Assistant Pool Manager, as the new Pool Manager; and the appointment of John David Banis as the Assistant Manager.

Both young men are highly qualified, says Director Renfro, who expects a well-organized summer program.

Rec. Supervisor Given Approval

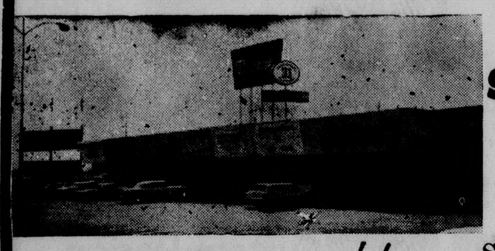

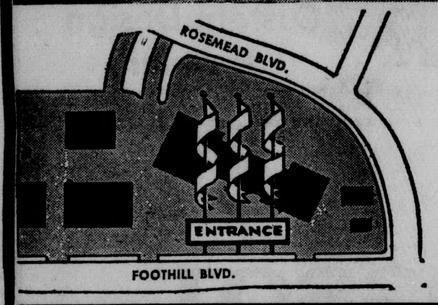

Director of Parks and Recreation Renfro announced today the approval of a Recreation Supervisor under the P.E.P. Program of the Federal Government. Under this program, the City may hire the approved personnel whose salary is paid by the Government. The program may be renewed again, but at present it ends in August.

The Recreation Supervisor wil be responsible for many recreation programs within the City, such as the July Fourth Parade, senior citizens programs, and other cultural enrichment activities.

Councilman Commends Police Chief Report

121 juveniles. The 457 prisoners were confined for a total of 636 days or an average of 1.4 prisoner days per prisoner.

Although the total crimes investigated were 2,155 the report shows that the Department as a whole responded to and assisted in 3,179 incidents which were of a non-criminal nature, but were of sufficient importance to write a report on. Topping the list for the non-criminal incidents was Warrant Service, 613; Assist to the Public, 429; Suspicious Circumstances, 265; Property Found, 205; Suspicious Perosns, 164; Suspicious Noise, 128; Assist to other Agencies, 107; Motor Vehicle Accidents, 174; ;Registration of Guns, 100.

Also included in this group was Registration, arson, 11; Missing Persons, 32; Fire, 63; Animal Bite 49; Sick Cared For, 77; and Suspicious Vehicles, 86.

Activity in the reoprt also covered 2,034 situations that required attention but were not written as a report, such as Flag Detail, 688; House Checks, 786; Burglar Alarms Ringing, 148; Robbery Alarm, 26; Street Lights Out, 109; Prisoner Transportation, 63; Trees Down, 29; and other miscellaneous making up the total.

In the Accident Department it showed that there were 116 non-injury accidents and 42 with injury, but no fatalities.

In the report it was indicated that 5552 Citations were issued during the year with parking topping the list at 3271 and Hazardous Moving Violations, 942; and other miscellaneous citation, 1336.

The report further shows that the employment complement at the end of the year was 21 and the average for the year was 19, and the Police Reserves totaled 21 men which during the year 1971 donated approximately 6,000 hours of their time to the City which represents in dollar value a total of $26,000. These hours are broken down in the following hours 4,052 on Patrol; 174 hours of station assignment; 511 hours of special detail; fire call 10 hours; Training, 1,168 hours, and court time approximately 40 hours

Ending up his report for the year 1971, Chief Kendra showed that 956 hours of time was given to various areas of training for which the department received $5,447 from P.O.S.T.

For those interested the review of the report showed that activity and morale of the department is now at above average, and Sierra Madre can be compared with any city for adequite and thorough police protection. We join with Councilman Rudolph in our congratulations to the Chief and the Department as a whole for a fine job during 1971.

The People Must Know

By Howard Jarvis
State Chairman, United Organizations of Taxpayers

The Public Broadcasting System is financed by the government which gets it's money from you. No one knows how much it costs the taxpayers but two well known figures, Sandy Vanocur and Robert Mc Neil left the private broadcasting system to go public. Mr. Vanocur draws $85,000 a year and Mr. Mc Neil draws $65,000 a year. It is estimated that about one per cent of the people watch Public Broadcasting programs, but what the hell, you don't need ratings when your nose is so deep in the public trough.

Gambling is up in Nevada. In 1971 the Casino's raked off $633 million from the pigeons and no one knows how much they "skimmed" off the top.

In 1971 "Social Welfare" in the United States cost the taxpayers $170.7 billion which amounts to 16.9 per cent of our total gross production. Before long, this amount will double and then the only way left to make a living is to be unemployed.

Senator Mike Mansfield's announcement that the United States Senate could not conduct its business because so many Senators were AWOL caused a bit of a stir because California Senator John Tunney was skiing with Senator Edward Kennedy in Switzerland. The other Democrats off the job were Howard Cannon, Nevada, who was in Berlin, Gale McGee, Wyoming, who was in Sofia, Bulgaria, Warren Magnuson, Washington who has been absent since January 18, 1972.

Senator John Tower, Republican of Texas was away with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Although few people know it, one of the better Congressmen in the nation is H. Allen Smith (R) Glendale who is retiring this year. Mr. Smith was an excellent source of information and printed a news letter each month that was a fountain of knowledge about the doings of the government. I have read this news letter for more than 10 years and it was the best news letter available. I will miss this source very much and California and the nation will miss H. Allen Smith. His shoes will be very hard to fill, he has earned the good rest and I hope he enjoys it to the limit.

The right to "petition the government for redress" is one of the inalienable rights of every American citizen. That right is being tested now in court action to determine the qualification of the Jarvis one per cent property tax limit amendment. The answer will soon be forthcoming. Watch for it.

Uncle Sam Grows Bigger

The Post Office Department is considering acquisition of its own fleet of planes ranging from four-engined transports down to smaller types. The idea behind the proposal is to use the planes for carrying mail. Also it is reported that another government agency, the General Services Administration, is studying the possibility of establishing a government-wide fleet of planes. And so government grows day after day, month after month, year after year — always in the name of greater efficiency or of providing a needed service.

Meanwhile, relatively speaking, the taxpayer grows poorer. A Washington observer reports, "Of all the metropolitan areas of the United States none has come through economic recession with fewer bruises and blemishes than the nation's capital." The flow of public funds makes Washington, D.C. depression proof. Each new program, each new service provided to taxpayers means more high-priced public servants. No longer does a civil service job mean little money but good security. It now means both, and civil service workers in many instances fare as well or better than their nonfederal counterparts. Fleets of government planes flying around the country will be another reminder that the citizen is getting smaller as government gets bigger.

Poison Prevention

The pharmacists of our community again are calling attention to the continuing need to prevent accidental poisonings, especially among young children. The occasion is the eleventh annual National Poison Prevention Week observance, which this year takes place from March 19 to 25. The pharmacists are quick to remind us, however, that poison prevention must be a year-round effort.

National Poison Prevention Week is an excellent time to focus attention on the educational tragedies that do occur and to cite the steps we can all take to avoid them. To this end, the pharmacists of our community offer the following review:

Q. Is there a new law that will prevent accidental poisonings?

A. The Poison Prevention Packaging Act, Public Law 91-601, seeks to protect children from accidentally ingesting toxic substances by requiring safety closures and other safety packaging. The package must be so designed that most children under five will find it difficult to open but will still be relatively uncomplicated in the hands of an adult.

Q. Does this mean all medicines, cleaning products, etc. will be in "safety" packages?

A. A special packaging will be required for those items which could cause serious personal injury or illness to children when those items are packaged in such a way, and in such quantities, that their accessibility presents a hazard.

Q. Will the "safety" container also protect the quality of the drug inside?

A. Unfortunately, no child-resistant container for drug products is known with certainty to satisfy our high standards for assuring that medication will be both safe and effective when administered to the patient — that is, a "tight" container which will protect liquid drug products from evaporation and solid drug products such as tablets or capsules from decomposition. We are hopeful this uncertainty will be resolved soon.

Q. Does the new "safety" packaging mean I don't have to worry about my child?

A. Absolutely not. Agile, ingenious children are going to investigate every possible way to open a container. If their fingers won't work, their teeth might.

Q. What can I do then?

A. Keep all household products and medicines out of the reach — and sight — of children. Lock the products and medicines up when not in use, and when they are in use, they should never be left on the counter or floor. If you have to answer the door or phone, take the product with you.

Telecommuincation Surveillance

Food, Drug Administration Get Fast Reports of Injuries

A three-year-old girl playing with her favorite mechanical toy accidentally cuts three fingers on her left hand. Because the gashes seem to require immediate professional treatment, the child's mother rushes her to the emergency room at Holy Cross Hospital in San Fernando.

Hospital records on the little girl's accident are not, however, simply filed and forgotten once she is bandaged and comforted. Instead, her injury — along with many others treated by hospitals across the country the same day — is reported promptly that night to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration in Washington, D.C., over a new coast-to-coast telecommunications arrangement called the "National Electronic Injury Surveillance System."

The system, which shortly will take in 119 hospitals throughout the United States, is an "early warning" device for detecting consumer products that may be defective or dangerous. Daily reports to the FDA from participating hospitals are providing a basis for prompt investigation and possible action by the agency's Bureau of Product Safety.

The reports are transmitted to Washington via teletypewriter over the nationwide telephone network into a computer. The hospital in San Fernando obtained its telecommunications link to the FDA system from General Telephone Company of California, a subsidiary of General Telephone & Electronics Corporation.

New System Provides Data

"The new electronic surveillance system is enabling us to obtain, for the first time, up-to-date and nationally representative information on product-related injuries treated by hospital emergency rooms," said Malcolm W. Jensen, director of the Bureau of Product Safety. "The data is proving very helpful in our efforts to reduce injuries caused by defective or hazardous products that people use in their homes, schools, and a vocational activities."

FDA staff members study the accident reports arriving each day from participating hospitals to identify common factors among the cases and to decide which mishaps should be investigated. Decisions to investigate accidents associated with the use of certain products are based on the frequency and relative severity of the injuries involved.

"The average consumer cannot tell in advance whether a product he buys is going to be defective or dangerous,' Mr. Jensen pointed out. "Therefore we are looking into accidents resulting from the use of some 650 items, including appliances, home workshop tools, play equipment and toys. Automobile accidents, occupational injuries, and crime-related mishaps are not covered by the surveillance program."

After deciding which accidents should be investigated, officials instruct their field investigators — who number 700 throughout the country — to seek interviews with the victims within three days of the mishaps. The FDA plans to investigate 9,000 of the estimated 700,000 domestic injuries that will be reported during 1972.

Once a product is identified as defective or dangerous, the manufacturer or distributor may be asked to redesign it or remove it from the market, Mr. Jensen said.

Other GTE Cos. Involved

Five other hospitals participating in the surveillance program also obtained the necessary telecommunications facilities from GTE telephone companies. They are: Lodi Community Hospital, Lodi, O., served by Northern Ohio Telephone Company; Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, Pa., served by General Telephone Company of Pennsylvania; Tuomey Hospital, Sumter, S.C., served by General Telephone Company of the Southeast; General Hospital of Everett, Everett, Wash., served by General Telephone Company of the Northwest; and Woodford Memorial Hospital, Versailles, Ky., served by General Telephone Company of Kentucky.

15th Annual Ball For ORT Group

More than 1400 guests are expected to attend the Fifteenth annual ball of Southern California Women's American ORT. The ball which culminates a year of activitp on the part of the membership towards ORT's program of vocational and technical education will be held Saturday evening, March 25 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel starting at 7:30 p.m.

According to Mrs. Howard Shusetts, of Woodland Hills, ball chairman, the dinner dance is a reward function to those members who have given outstanding contributions and service to the organization. Richard C. Barrett, Beverly Hills businessman will be signled out for special recognition for his valuable support to activities of Women's American ORT

Master of ceremonies for the evening will be toastamster general George Jessel. Among the entertainers will be comedian Allan Drake. Lynn Willis and his orchestra will provide the dance music.

Assisting Mrs. Shusetts in the arrangements are the Mrs. Emanuel Adelman, Encino; Bruce Weiss, Cypress; Aaron Frankel, Trazara; and Natt Trojan, Santa Monica.

Census Bureau At Work In Our Area

To obtain current statistics on employment and unemployment the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey here the week of March 20, C. Michael Long, Director of the Bureau's Data Collection Center in Los Angeles, announced today.

The survey will include questions on work experience last year, whether persons have moved since the 1970 census, and ethnic origin.

The samples of households in this area taking part in the survey are among 50,000 scientifically selected to represent a cross section of all households in the Nation.

The survey is conducted each month for the U.S Department of Labor. The employment and unemployment statistics are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the country.

For example, recent surveys indicate that employment has advanced strongly since last summer. The December - January rise was 240,000 seasonally adjusted. The jobless rate has remained close to 6 per cent since late 1970. It was 5.9 in January, compared with 6.0 per cent in December.

Facts supplied by persons participating in the survey are kept strictly confidential by law, and results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Attend the Church of your Choice this Sunday; you will always meet your friends there.

Notice To State Income Taxpayers

Taxpayers are urged to prepare their state personal income tax returns early and to pay the full amount due by this year's April 17 deadline in order to avoid penalties, and to claim the special 20 per cent reduction, said Martin Huff, executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

This one-time special reduction will be lost unless payment in full is made before the deadline, and the return is filed on time, Huff said.

There are no provisions in the law for partial or installment payments and unpaid tax is subject to an immediate five per cent penalty plus an additional one per cent per month combined penalty and interest.

"Waiting until the last minute may be costly in more ways than one," Huff warned.

Too often, he said, the taxpayer finds himself lacking the information to justify deductions or the funds readily available to pay the amount due. As a result, he may overpay his tax or be required to pay penalties.

State Tax Filing Shows Some Errors

Individuals who worked for more than one employer during 1971 may have overpaid their State Disability Insurance and may be entitled to a refund.

Martin Huff, executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board, noted that some individuals are claiming this overpayment as a credit against their personal income tax liability. This is in error. This year a claim for the 1971 refund of the State Disability Insurance overpayment must be filed with the Department of Human Resources Development, 800 Capital Mall, Sacramento, California 95814, Huff said.

Coin Banks At First Western Till April 10

A coin bank resembling grandmother's blue - green cookie jar is the free gift for First Western Bank customers who join the bank's most popular savings club, the Small Change Club, from now through April 10 or as long as the supply lasts.

This springtime Small Change Club promoiton is now underway at the Sierra Madre Office, where Manager Harlan Thompson says that customers who open savings accounts with $5 or more receive the cookie jar bank free.

Present members of the Small Change Club win the free bank by adding $5 or more to an existing account.

The opening deposit also entitles the Small Change Club member to a specially-designed passbook with the club's ensignia enscribed on it. When the member fills his cookie jar with small change he brings it into the bank and deposits the money in his club account.

The Small Change Club originated at First Western two years ago to say that all savers were welcome, Small Change Savers especially.

Nursery School Lectures Continue; Next To Be Held Monday, May 8

"Marriage and Parenting Today," theme of the spring lecture series sponsored by Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, opened on Thursday, March 2, with a parent's panel discussing "Do Parents Need to Agree When Disciplining Children?"

Dr. Carl M. Snafer, faculty member of the USC School of Social Work was moderator. Over 100 people attended the lecture indicating that adults today are concerned and interested in furthering their understanding of their roles as marriage partners.

On March 28, "Transition in Marriage," will be the topic of Dr. Gary L. Coleite, associate, Western Psychological Center. Dr. Coleite was originally scheduled to speak on May 8.

The lecture originally scheduled for March 28, "The Impact of Children on a Marriage," by Mrs. Isabelle Fox, mental health consultant for Operation Headstart and Western Psychological Center has been rescheduled for Monday, May 8.

The staff of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School are aware of and concerned about the needs of the very young child, and each child is considered in the light of his individual needs. A waiting list is being formed for those wishing to enroll in the preschool programs or in the kindergarten which will begin its second year of operation in September.

With the rapidly changing needs of the individual to exist and function successfully in today's society we feel that children need to develop feelings of esteem and self-confidence. The nursery school provides opportunities for this through it's rich environment. In addition, our complex society demands that an individual be capable of change and problem solving. Experiences at the school give the child tools for meeting these situations. Since such attitudes and feelings are equally important for adults, parent education is an integral and on going function of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School. For information call the school at 355-1655.

He wrote back. Business was bad, but he was due a bonus at the end of the month and would pay me off. In the future, he asked, would I send all correspondence to his office since matters like this upset his wife.

— CT —

A year went by and I hard nothing. "Matters like this also upset your wife," my wife said. She picked up the phone and called his wife. A week later we got a check for $50. Nothing more.

— CT —

Two more years passed. Gradually this thing began to eat away inside me. Sometimes at night I would lie awake thinking how to get my money back, and my blood would boil.

— CT —

Then, last week, it finally dawned on me that although the bad debt obviously wasn't affecting my friend, it was tearing me all to pieces. Slowly I became aware of the spiritual damage it was doing as I stewed in my resentment and bitterness. As a Christian I knew I should be praying for my friend, but this was impossible. All I wanted to do was choke him. And not only that, but I found myself wanting to choke a lot of other people who had wronged me. It was time to take some action.

— CT —

I went to the Bible and suddenly discovered hundreds of passages on forgiveness — all of which applied directly to my case. In fact, every place I turned I found passages that indicated God was going to forgive me just the way I was forgiving my friend.

— CT —

"Oh, oh," I moaned. "The good news has become bad news to me."

"And what about that debt you owed me," God reminded me one night, "the one I have already forgiven."

"Okay, God. Don't rub it in. I see. I see."

So last night I dug into my file cabinet and pulled out the four-year-old note. I wrote across the bottom, "Paid in Full for Jesus sake. Ephesians 4:32." and I dropped it in the mail.

— CT —

A heavy weight lifted from my spirit. Since my friend no longer owes me money, now I can love him again. And my channel to love others has been unplugged also.

Now I'll have to go to work on that feeling I have for the mechanic at the garage who charged me for a new carburetor and then put the old one back in. That happened 10 years ago but it still bugs me. And then there's the woman who lied about me back in Kansas, and that bully who punched me in the nose . . . somehow I have a lot of grudges to dispose of.

— CT —

But at least I know what to do with them. And it won't cost me a cent — yet it will bring more peace than all the money in the world could buy. Peace! Wonderful peace!

— CT —

In closing the column for this week, let me remind you that Nature gave men two ends . . . one to sit on and one to think with. Ever since then, man's success or failure has depended on the one he used the most . . . I'm sure I have reminded you of this before, so will see you around, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Senior Citizens Met March 11

The meeting of the Senior Citizen's Club of Sierra Madre was called to order Saturday, March 11, by the president. After the prayer and pledge allegiance to the flag the group sang "America" and "The More We Get Together."

Mrs. Cora Erb, a visitor, was greeted and Lillian Graham, Lola Bullock and Lillian Van De Veer were thanked for the lovely flower decorations.

Ann Platell read "What's A Grandmother," and "Monkeys," two very clever poems.

Minutes of the last meeting were approved as read and treasurer's report accepted, followed by a motion to pay all bills.

The corresponding secretary reported no illnesses.

Pearl Patterson said all those going on the Palm Springs trip on March 17th be sure to be at the corner of Sierra Madre and the Park at 8:15. There will be a trip to the Queen Mary sometime in April.

It was moved and seconded the club relinquish the Park House on May 20th to the Art Center.

A new tote case was presented to the president, Gladys Tucker to hold her numerous business papers. She thanked the club and expressed her pleasure with the attendance and new members.

The members were reminded of the treat in store for them on March 18. Mr. Moyer and Mrs. Schaper will present a St. Patrick's Day program.

At the completion of business the club adjourned for cards.

Attend the Church of your Choice this Sunday; you will always meet your friends there.

Letters To the Editor . . . .

Dear Editor:

Last September, 1971, the American Civil Liberties Union, ACLU, filed suit against Secretary of State William P. Rogers, claiming the oath of allegiance on the passport application was unconstitutional and should be eliminated. (Cohen v. Rogers U.S.D.C., D. C. Civil Action No. 3021-70.)

Miss Frances Knight, Director, Passport Office, opposed the ACLU effort to eliminate the oath. It is said that the White House intervened, and Secretary Rogers announced the oath would remain on all passports.

Isn't it strange that all this has been "hushed up?"

—C. C. Moseley

Dear Editor: :

I wish to thank you and all the wonderful merchants that joined in congratulations to the Sierra Madre Woman's Club on the 65th anniversary.

I am one of the old time members and we do appreciate very much the interest that is shown by this courtesy. Thanks again.

—Clara L. Sykes
President 1957-58

To the Editor:

Thousands of Americans will be victims of accidental poisoning in and about their homes during 1972. Some 1800 persons will die and, over half of these needless tragedies will happen to children under five years of age.

March 19th through March 25th is National Poison Prevention Week and the California Pharmaceutical Association's over 2200 members are joining with pharmacists and other health care agencies across the country to alert the public to the many hazards that lurk in the home.

There are now over 250,000 brand name products for the home and garden which can be purchased in supermarkets and nurseries; and any one of which, if accidentally ingested, could result in pain, anguish and even death.

Consequently, it is more important than ever that the public be constantly on its vigil with regard to such products aound the home... particularly in homes where there are small children.

In an effort to alert the public to the ever-pesent dangers of accidental poisoning and to reduce needless tragedies, the California Pharmaceutical Association is conducting a public education campaign during Poison Prevention Week.

—Ed Mullens, Jr.

Dear Editor,

Instinctive rejection by irate parents of the Virginia inter-county busing order, and national defiance of other revoutionary directives to achieve "racial balance," reveals a proper reverence for constitutional freedoms by the average American family.

Lack of informed leadership to give this promising protest direction and purpose may, however, doom a potential challenge to tyrrany to a mere exercise in futility.

The real issue before State governments is that: a. Federal "laws" are promulgated by the United Nations Organization; and, b. These ultra vires acts are foisted upon State governments, and the citizens they represent, by federal agencies acting in violation of the United States Constitution.

Intervention by the United Nations Organization in public education was succinctly revealed by Mr. Carl B. Rix, former president, The American Bar Association, before a Senate Committee which was hearing testimony on the Bricker Amendment, 11 May, 1955.

Under the new-found United Nations Treaty power, Mr. Rix noted, the Congress "may enact a comprehensive education bill providing for education in any State which does not provide for it. In fact," he said, "it may take over all public education now provided by States and municipalities."

"Congress is no longer bound by its constitutional system of delegated power," said attorney Rix. "It's only test is under the obligatory (the word is that of the Attorney General) power to promote human rights in these fields of endeavor: Civil, political, economic, cultural. These are found in articles 55 and 56 of the Charter of the United Nations, a ratified and approved treaty. They are being promoted in all parts of the world by the United Nations," he declared.

The new test of constitutionality applies to all legislation by Congress since 1945, which deals with any of the five fields of endeavor. Any judge deciding on the validity of legislation must have two books before him — one, the Constitution of the United States and the other — the Charter of the United Nations. If he does not find authority for the act in the Constitution, he will find it in the Charter. This is the exact situation in which U. S. District Judge Robert R. Merhinge, Jr., found himself last January in ordering the seventy per cent black city school system of Richmond, Virginia, desegregated through merger with the ninety per cent white system of two suburban counties.

It is by such deceit that forced integration of the State school systems, and of the American society became the "Law of the Land."

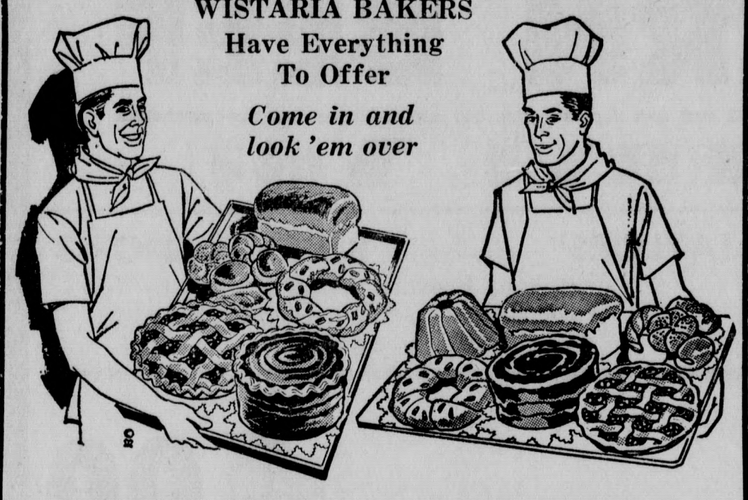

This emasculation of our Constitution by the Congress most certainly was not authorized by the States as parties to the Constitutional Compact. Lacking this authority, it is against the law. Being unlawful, it must be put down.
